STAGE STORMERS

2001 – present

Program Director & Instructor

Responsibilities include the overall practical and creative interpretation of a dramatic script or musical score, taking into account the budgetary and physical constraints of production. This was accomplished by working closely with the creative and production teams, the performers and the producer to create a performance which connects with the audience. Typical activities include, but are not limited to:

- Programming and budgeting
- Breaking down a script, analyzing and exploring the content and conducting relevant research
- Conducting auditions for productions, selecting and hiring teachers, choreographers, and volunteers
- Communicating and liaising with all parties involved, including actors, the creative team, the production team and producers
- Coordinating and attending production meetings with directors
- Produce, direct, audition and cast production
- Adapting a script to fit various class situations
- Translating and interpreting a script or musical score
- Managing time and organizing people and space
- Scheduling and conducting rehearsals
- Attended preview performances and preparing detailed notes for the cast and creative and production teams
- Instructing students on the ins and outs of putting on a theater production; blocking, script-work, makeup, costuming, working with props, singing and dancing
